

Erin E. Boerschel | Associate

boerschele@seversonsheldon.com

Erin joined the firm as a law clerk while still in law school. While working in that capacity, Erin regularly assisted the firm's attorneys with a wide variety of cases and research projects, including both litigation and transactional matters. After earning her Juris Doctorate from Hamline University School of Law, Erin was invited to join the firm as a full-time associate attorney.

Today, Erin's practice includes representation in the areas of family law, municipal law and business and commercial law.

Erin recently moved to Lakeville with her husband, Bob, and cat, Sadie. In her free time, Erin enjoys spending time with family, waterskiing, golfing, walking and listening to music.
